candidates. These are the Second, Fifth and Ninth.

Ordinarily there should be no trouble over the Second. There will be none this year if the differing elements can be got together. Apparently this can be done only by nominating a man acceptable to the "Chizens' League" for the other element will vote the Democratic ticket under any circumstances. The outlook at present is said to be favorable to the nomination of Senator E. E. Holland, of Suffolk, and it is not believed that even the "good government" element will be able to find sufficient ground for opposing him.

Fifth is Doubtful.

The Fifth, the Democrats frankly admit, is the most doubtful district in the State. Although the Democrats there have been attempting to organize the party to the best of their ability, there seems to be lacking the tendency toward a Democratic landside which is evident everywhere else in the country. The Republicans are making a gumshoe campaign, which does not look good to the watcher from afar, and it is agreed that to insure the re-
